PARISH INTERNET ACCESS

St. Paul Parish has entered the information age for parishioners having Internet Access. On our parish website you can find out parish phone numbers, when a group or committee meets, contact the parish staff or look at the Sunday Bulletin online. Our website maintenance is a free service of Liturgical Publications, the folks who do our parish bulletin. As we develop our website further we plan to post meeting minutes, calendars and other desirable information. You can reach our parish website at www.stpaulfenton.org. Our parish e-mail address, which is also available on our website, is stpaulfenton@usa.net. You are most welcome to visit us anytime at our new website. Just a reminder that all this is made possible by the advertisers on our bulletin and by Liturgical Publications. Let them know you appreciate it when you patronize them.

NOTES FROM FATHER EVERDING

WE REMEMBER. As a faith community, this is not a challenge that we face one day a year. For us, it is a way of life. On this Memorial Day weekend, we do remember all of those who gave their lives for our country. But our memory should be much broader.

We remember that we have a God who loves us more than we love our own kids. We remember that Jesus walks the path of life with us. We remember all those who have gone before us and the faith that was their strength. We remember that in God we live and move and have our being. Perhaps if we remembered all these things more constantly, no one else would ever have to die in war.

THERE WILL BE ONLY MASS ON MEMORIAL DAY - 8:00.

Church Support

May 23, 1999	Envelopes	$12,145.50
	Loose	1,540.02

LITURGY OF THE WORD

There will be a special reserved place behind the choir for all parents and students. This will help ushers seat the rest of the parishioners. Thank you for your cooperation.

The Ushers

"In the Mass and in Eucharistic Adoration we meet the merciful love of God that passes through the heart of Jesus Christ ..." (Pope John Paul II, Papal Mass, 1-27- 99 in St. Louis.)

Could you spend some time each Wednesday between 2:30 and 8:30 p.m. in adoration of our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament for your families, for religious vocations, for our country?

Prayer Group Join us this Thursday as we prepare for the Feast of Corpus Christi by reading scriptures and sharing in small groups as we receive God's grace to believe in, and proclaim, His Eucharistic love.

"For my flesh is true food, and my blood is true drink. Whoever eats My flesh and drinks My blood remains in Me and I in him." John 6:55-56 the special collection at Masses next weekend will be for Cardinal Glennon Children's Hospital. Cardinal Glennon, the only free standing Catholic pediatric hospital in the country, has been treating children for over forty years under the mission of never turning a child away. Your generosity is important for the hospital to continue this mission. Please give to the children by making a donation to the hospital's annual Glennon Sunday Collection or mail your check, payable to Cardinal Glennon Children's Hospital, to Glennon Sunday Collection, 1465 South Grand Boulevard, St. Louis, Mo 63104. Thank you for caring!

The Mission of Ministry

If you have been on the fence about whether to become involved in a specific Liturgical Ministry because you're just not sure what it might involve and how much of your time it might take, now's the time to jump! June 19, we will host the first-ever St. Paul's Mission in Ministry Workshop. All current Liturgy Ministers including: Lectors, Eucharistic Ministers, Ushers, Greeters, Commentators, Choirs, Musicians, and Art and Decoration Ministers will receive training as outlined by the Archdiocesan Office of Worship. Sessions will run from 9:30 - 11:30 a.m., and end with a luncheon. Experts who have conducted these courses from around the Archdiocese will join us that day and after an initial introduction, will break out with the separate groups to conduct training.

We'd like to see as many people as possible take advantage of this valuable training, so if you've been thinking about joining one of the ministries, now is the time. Please RSVP to the leader of the ministry you are interested in whose numbers are listed below. Thanks for your consideration. Chris Stelling, Liturgy Coordinator
