Reading I 2 Kgs 4:8-11, 14-16a

One day Elisha came to Shunem, where there was a woman of influence, who urged him to dine with her. Afterward, whenever he passed by, he used to stop there to dine. So she said to her husband, "I know that Elisha is a holy man of God. Since he visits us often, let us arrange a little room on the roof and furnish it for him with a bed, table, chair, and lamp, so that when he comes to us he can stay there."

Sometime later Elisha arrived and stayed in the room overnight. Later Elisha asked, "Can something be done for her?" His servant Gehazi answered, "Yes! She has no son, and her husband is getting on in years." Elisha said, "Call her."

When the woman had been called and stood at the door, Elisha promised, "This time next year, you will be fondling a baby son.!"

Reading II Rom 6:3-4, 8-11

Brothers and sisters:

Are you unaware that we who were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death?

We were indeed buried with him through baptism into death, so that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we too might live in newness of life.

If, then, we have died with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him. We know that Christ, raised from the dead, dies no more; death no longer has power over him.

As to his death, he died to sin once and for all; as to his life, he lives for God. Consequently, you too must think of yourselves as dead to sin and living for God in Christ.

LITURGY OF THE EUCHARIST

Gospel Mt 10:37-42

Jesus said to his apostles:
"Whoever loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me, and whoever loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me; and whoever does not take up his cross and follow after me is not worthy of me.

Whoever finds his life will lose it, and whoever loses his life for my sake will find it.

Whoever receives you receives me, and whoever receives me receives the one who sent me. Whoever receives a prophet because he is a prophet will receive a prophet's reward, and whoever receives a righteous man because he is a righteous man will receive a righteous man's reward. And whoever gives only a cup of cold water to one of these little ones to drink because the little one is a disciple-- amen, I say to you, he will surely not lose his reward."

Fourth Eucharistic Prayer:
"He always loved those who were his own in the world."

Sign of Peace: let's take time!

GO IN PEACE
TO LOVE AND SERVE THE LORD!

Homily—
Yes, it hurts and it doesn't feel fair. Carry your cross! We were promised the Father's faithfulness. You were baptized into death—aren't you aware of it? AND into resurrection. This time next year . . .

Homily response:
Carry your cross!

RECESSIONAL HYMN:

I am the Resurrection and the Life
He who believes in me will never die
I am the resurrection and the Life
He who believes in me will live a new life.

*A few thoughts
from the pastor's pen*

Thank you, Resurrection parishioners.
We have had a wonderful life together. I will hold you always in my heart.

Love,
Fr. Tom
