Liturgical Meditations

LITURGY OF THE DAY Today the Church celebrates the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. Our focus is on what sustains and nourishes us for the Christian life. The Lord's body is real food and his blood is real drink. We eat and drink in order to gain the strength we need to continue to work for the reign of God, which was inaugurated by Christ. We raise our voices in praise for the gift of the Eucharist—our lasting treasure.

LITURGY OF THE WORD Throughout salvation history, the people of God have been tried and tested. God continually fed the people, first with manna in the desert, a holy food that foreshadowed the holy food that the Lord Jesus left as an everlasting gift—his body and blood. Saint Paul tells us that when we eat and drink of Christ's body and blood, we participate in him and become the Body of Christ. As the word of God is proclaimed this day, let us pray for a renewal of our faith in the miracle of the Holy Eucharist, which comes to us week after week in this sacred place.

Recipe for a Beautiful Life

*For attractive lips, speak words of kindness.
For lovely eyes, seek out the good in people.
For a slim figure, share your food with the hungry.
For beautiful hair, let a child run his fingers through it once a day.
For poise, walk with the knowledge that you'll never walk alone.
The tender loving care of human beings will never become obsolete.
People, even more than things, have to be restored, renewed, revived, reclaimed and redeemed and redeemed and redeemed.
Never throw out anybody.
Remember, if you ever need a helping hand, you'll find one at the end of your arm.
As you grow older, you will discover that you have two hands; one for helping yourself, the other for helping others.
Your "good old days" are still ahead of you. May you have many of them!*
